

What Can You Do?

Show Up - Support protests, speak at public meetings, and stand with those whose speech is threatened.

Share Loudly - Post, print, and pass along work that inspires action. Amplify voices that are being silenced.

Protect Public Spaces - Libraries, community centers, and streets belong to everyone. Fight for them to remain free zones for art and ideas.

Make & Distribute Art - Whether you're a professional artist or just doodling in the margins, your work has power. Share it where people gather.

Know Your Rights - Learn how the First Amendment protects you, and be ready to defend it.

What's a Liberty Art Drop?

It's a surprise infusion of free art into public service spaces - libraries, transit stops, community centers, laundromats, and more.

Each drop is a small act of rebellion and connection: a way to place beauty, solidarity, and truth right where people live and move. They're for everyone - because freedom and creativity belong to us all.

Anyone can participate. -

Share art. Speak out.

Make a mini zine.

Do something to use your First Amendment rights & support Public Services!

All Art is Political

From the moment a child picks up a crayon, art is shaped by access - who can afford supplies, whose creativity is nurtured, whose stories are valued.

A child's drawing of a home or family reflects their reality, their safety, and the world they're growing up in. For professional artists, the stakes are just as high - what we create, where it's shown, and how it's received is always tied to systems of power, privilege, and control.

Art doesn't exist in a vacuum. Every mark made, every image shared, is part of the larger fight over who gets to be seen, heard, and remembered.

CRYPTIDS FOR A CAUSE

MYSTERIOUS. MYTHICAL. UNSTOPPABLE.

What Are Cryptids for a cause?

Cryptids for a cause are mysterious, mythical creatures born from the collective spirit of activism, freedom, and community. They don't just live in legends - they live in our streets, our hearts, and our art.

Why Cryptids?

Cryptids are symbols of the unseen, the misunderstood, the hidden truths. Like the movements we support and fight for, they challenge the status quo, disrupt silence, and spark conversations others try to bury.

Why It Matters?

In 2025, the fight for free speech and creative expression is no longer abstract - it's happening now. From banned books to silenced artists, from algorithmic censorship to laws that chill dissent, the right to speak and create freely is under pressure. Art is more than decoration - it's a weapon, a refuge, and a rally cry.

The First Amendment guarantees freedom of speech and expression - a protection that has powered every movement for justice in this country.

Defending it means defending all of us: the right to imagine, resist, and speak the truth, even when it makes those in power uncomfortable.

Our Mission

Elevate Voices: Use art to spotlight social justice and human rights.

Create Connection: Bring art and information directly into communities where it can inspire and unite.

Ignite Action: Encourage viewers to learn, engage, and stand for liberty.

Why Drop Art in Public Spaces?

Public service spaces are for everyone - art in these spaces reminds us that freedom and creativity belong to all. Cryptids for a cause challenge us to see the unseen, hear the unheard, and act with courage.
